

Harold A. Cohn

Counsel

Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command

Harold A. Cohn, a member of the District of Columbia and Kentucky bars, is the Counsel at SPAWAR. He serves as the principal legal advisor to TEAM SPAWAR, which includes diverse Program Executive Offices, directorates and field activities that are uniquely qualified to deliver transformational capabilities to the Fleet. Cohn also oversees the headquarters and field office attorneys in providing legal advice and services necessary for the command to accomplish its mission.

From November 1996 to September 1998, Cohn served as Deputy Counsel for SPAWAR, and from September 1998 until July 1999, he served as Acting Counsel. From 1994 to 1996, Cohn served as the Lead Counsel on the A-12 Integrated Program Team reporting directly to the General Counsel of the Navy. From 1980 to 1994, Cohn was an Associate Counsel for the Naval Sea Systems Command in Arlington, Va., serving as a senior attorney in the Shipbuilding Section and as the head of the claims group. Cohn began his Office of General Counsel career in 1977 at the Automatic Data Processing Selection Office where he earned the position of Deputy Counsel. Cohn is a recipient of the Superior Service Award, the Meritorious Service Award and numerous special act awards.

Prior to entering government service, Cohn was the Legal Director of a research corporation providing a broad range of legal services to that corporation.

In 1972, Cohn earned a bachelor's of science degree from American University, and in 1975 he earned his J.D. degree from the University of Louisville School of Law. Cohn completed a graduate program earning an LL.M. degree at George Washington University Law School in 1979.
